To whom it may concern,

Allen Lee has worked for Voyso since Sept. 2018. In that time he was promoted from Client Onboarding to Client Care. His responsibilities were to ensure timely and considerate service to our clients, as well as report issues affecting our systems, and to provide feedback on ways we can improve the wellbeing of the office.

Allen is a naturally considerate person. He believes strongly that our client's wellbeing is of paramount importance. Along with a fine attention to detail and thorough methodology. Allen is a powerhouse of work ethic. He is vocal about his opinion but maintains a respectful demeanor and is a fantastic candidate for leadership positions. Given this aptitude for people and organization he would be a fantastic improvement to any team.

I am excited to act as reference for Allen, in the time I've known him I've enjoyed our conversations and am excited to see where he goes. Should you have any further questions please feel free to contact me.

Dear Sir or Madam:

I am pleased to write this letter of recommendation for Allen Lee. I was one of his immediate supervisors while he was employed at Voyso, and he has been a very valuable asset to our organization.

I have known Allen for a little over 6 months and I can only speak highly of him. His dedication, integrity, character and dependability is what set him apart from other employees. He is an extremely reliable and hard-working person and always strives to be better. He is very trustworthy and is very discreet when handling sensitive information.

In the time that I had the pleasure of working closely with Allen, he was awarded many certificates of achievement, at times being awarded for weeks or months in a row. He is a very coachable person and always ready to feed his mind with more knowledge. His careful attention to detail and outstanding service to our clients, made him a top performer and preferred mentor to assist new employees.

In addition, Allen is a motivated, personable individual, and thrives when working in some aspect of the Client Care industry. He has an innate ability to remain diplomatic and tactful in all kinds of professional and non professional settings.

I highly recommend Allen and I know that he would be an asset to any organization. I'd be happy to answer any questions or discuss my recommendation further.
Please feel free to call me at 435-849-4252

Sincerely

Courtney Stewart

Re: Allen Lee

I have been involved in post-secondary education for over ten years and I find that Allen's determination to achieve is acceptable. He has great potential, and can be focused.

Allen operates with an insightful sense of vision and mission, especially when it comes to the technical component of his assignment. Because of his ability to understand technology, he has developed a knowledge base that serves him well as he steps out to share his knowledge.

Perhaps Allen's greatest quality, a characteristic that sets him apart from many, is his commitment. He can be tenacious and serious about working with technology and its impact upon the individual user.

In the final analysis, Allen has an ability to motivate and inspire others to understand his world of technology. Should you have any questions with regards to Allen's credentials, please feel free to give me a call.

Sincerely,

Robert L. Hayden

To Whom It May Concern:

It is my pleasure to recommend Allen Lee for future employment in any field. I have worked with Mr. Lee as his guidance counselor for the past two years. During this time, I have witnessed Mr. Lee's growth through his accomplishments in academics, vocation, and in the residential setting. He is currently pursuing a degree in Criminal Justice at Truckee Meadows Community College. He has maintained above-average progress in the dorm while excelling academically in the college program.

Mr. Lee has always been respectful of staff and peers, and possesses the communication skills along with the problem solving ability to work through difficult situations. Mr. Lee has demonstrated time and again the ability to communicate with students of different race, culture, and background.

In Mr. Lee's three years at Job Corps, he has completed every facet of the program with great pride and fortitude. Mr. Lee will undoubtedly be an asset to any employer fortunate enough to gain his services.

Sincerely,

Eric Ozolins

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

ALLEN LEE was a student in this vocation from 7-19-93 through 1-24-94. Allen completed the requirements for the Security Officer training in record time - four months. He was a very good student and a very good Security Cadet. After completion, he entered the college program at Truckee Meadows Community College, majoring in Law Enforcement.

Allen is a very personable young man and is serious about his future with law enforcement. He was an accomplished dispatcher during his training and has the administrative skills to complement this vocation.

I believe Mr. Lee will do an excellent job for whatever department employs him and will be a continuing credit to this vocational school.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN:

Allen Lee has worked with this office for the summer and has performed quite well even though a lot of the work has been tedious and repetitious.

Allen has been responsible for filing real property records, declarations of taxable property, opening the mail which contains large sums of money, searching information on the computer, answering the phone, shredding documents that are not public records, helping in the field to measure buildings, typing real property records and in general assisting with whatever task we ask of him.

His help has been a great benefit to this office and we would recommend him for re-hire for the part time winter program.
